SULLY FOR SALE.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty-two miles from Alexandria and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now untitled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are all conveniently situated, those for farming purposes are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate to an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Francois Lightfoot Lee.

For immediate Sale.

Two hundred SHEEP, one fourth full bred, the rest mixed Merinos, all in perfect health and fine order.

Fauquier Lands.

THE subscriber offers for sale the Estate whereon he resides in the county of Fauquier, about 8 miles below the court-house, on Cedar Run, between the roads leading to Fredericksburgh and Okequan, 30 miles distant from either place, and 40 to Alexandria by the turnpike, from Buckland, and is computed at Three thousand three hundred and seventy Acres, and is divided into three farms, with Woodland and Meadows, conveniently distributed for each. There is a Valuable Mill Seat,

with stone on the spot for building.

The stream is abundant, and waters the whole tract, presenting an extent of Four or five hundred Acres of Low Grounds of first quality.—The high land is well divided into regular fields, some of them very productive, and is adapted to the use of Plaster. Few tracts can possess greater advantages either for extensive grazing or grain culture.

The purchaser or purchasers of the land, can be accommodated with the farming utensils, the crops of Corn and the sown Wheat—the stock of Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Hogs; and with the Negroes on the estate in families, making about 150, of a very valuable description, with some tradesmen.

The improvements are a comfortable Dwelling House, with good out Houses, Ice House, Stables, &c. The situation is healthy and the water uncommonly good. Two thirds of the whole purchase money will be required at the delivery of the property, the balance in short payments with interest and secured by a deed of trust.

ALEXANDRIA.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15.

We regret to learn, (says the Albany Argus of Dec. 3.) that a serious accident happened to Col. Hawkins, on the night of the 25th ult. in his passage down the Mohawk river. Himself and Major Ro-bard, returning from Lake Superior, embarked on board an open boat at Utica, on account of the convenience of transporting their baggage. At night the boat grounded on a small bar, and the deck being covered with ice, Col. H. in attempting to get off, fell and broke of his ribs.

GENERAL SOCIETY.

We learn that Maj. General Winfield Scott has obtained a furlough from the War Department, for the purpose of visiting his native state, and that he expects to be in Richmond about the 15th Dec.
From the popularity of the General with the officers of the army, and the universal wish that a practical man should be placed at the head of the Department, it is expected that the office of Secretary of War will be offered to him by our next president. We further learn, that the General during his residence in France and England, made a large collection of military books, and that he is now engaged in compiling a book on Police, principally from French authors, for the army of the United States; the want of which is acknowledged by every person the least acquainted with military affairs.

Pet. Intel.

From a late pamphlet, entitled "A Candid Appeal to the present Ruling Party in the United States."

CHAP. XV.

Added to that course of measures which has been suggested in the preceding chapters, it is of the highest importance to establish a national university at the seat of government for the cognate reasons urged by Gen. Washington, as well as by president Madison in the last message; and more especially should this be done, as the public property in the city of Washington itself affords the means of effecting the object without imposing any burthen on the nation.

It is certain that Gen. Washington felt no constitutional scruple on this subject.
He was one of the framers of the constitution, and seems to have been disposed to construe that instrument, so as to promote the great objects of its institution; not to defeat and frustrate them.

These objects are "to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty."

It used to be held, that the preamble of a law by unfolding the intention of the lawgiver, enabled a judge more certainly to ascertain the meaning of the enactment. Applying this rule to the constitution, a liberal construction should be indulged, so as to enable the government to fulfill the high behests of the nation.
Under such a liberal and just construction, it is believed, that the constitution will be found adequate to all the great purposes of its institution, among others, to an university, to canals, to roads, and all other establishments essential to the union, the wealth, the power and liberty of the republic. But in the case of a national university, it is not necessary to resort to power derived by construction.
As before stated the property in the city of Washington furnishes the funds.

But a national university is not the only additional measure conducive to a national character. There ought to be in every import of the word, also a national city, in some worthy to be the metropolis of this great empire. But it was never treated upon; it is discouraged; it is left to force its way not only without the support of the fostering hand of government, but almost with its own hostility.
Local preferences seem to induce a general combination against it. Each city, nay, each village in the nation seems to regard the growth of the metropolis as a subtraction from itself. They seem not to reflect, that every measure which shall contribute to the stability, the permanence and prosperity of the national government will add to their prosperity. That disunion will bring evil and possibly ruin on them as well as on Washington; that whatever shall have a tendency to nationalize our feelings, to strengthen our union, to mingle our affections, and our blood, will contribute to the durability of the nation, to its safety, to its peace, to its power, to its prosperity, to its liberty. To produce these salutary effects a great national city seems to be essential; which shall perform to the public, the function, which the heart performs to the natural body. From this city as from the heart, let the national blood, the national power and wealth flow in an equal current to the most extreme members of the empire, imparting to all as it passes the due nourishment, and bringing back in its return, the vital lymph essential to its wholesome action.

When Washington sounds in our ears does not that sound excite a wish to perpetuate to the most remote posterity the virtues of its founder? does not the glow of patriotism inspire the desire to render the city established under his auspices, an ever enduring memorial, not only of his virtues but of our liberty.
In the city of Washington should be placed the great national fulcrum (the arms of its powerful machinery, extending to the most extreme points of the empire,) not only under the special protection, but under the watchful direction of the government. Here should be the metropolitan seat of the national bank, here the mint, here the national university, here a great military academy, in which the pupils from the other military schools might receive the finish of their education. From this city as from the common centre, the great high ways should take their course to the extremest points of the nation. To it every thing connected with the general administration should tend, and from it every thing proceed.

Such a consolidation is devoutly to be wished, which shall thus give due vigor to the national arm for the general welfare, while the state governments move in their limited and prescribed orbits, performing less splendid but not less useful duties to the society. By the administration of justice, by the preservation of internal order, by the extension of useful knowledge, by the encouragement of industry and by the punishment of vices, they will perform the glorious and sacred duty of training the American people to habits of virtue, thereby rendering them fit both to maintain & enjoy the liberty which they possess. But when the states endeavour to direct the national legislation in measures of general policy, they move from their proper sphere, they introduce disorder into the general system: they unfurl the banners of disobedience, they invite to disunion; they sow the seed of civil dissension, and urge on that most fatal catastrophe, the separation of these states by weakening the ties which now happily bind them together.

While then the general government like the sun in our planetary system, shall shed on each subordinate orb its genial and vivifying influence, with equal and unsparing rays, let the state governments confine themselves to their prescribed bounds conforming to the laws imposed by the great Creator of the whole.—The Sovereign people of these United States —Then may we hope that this Republic will be perpetual, that the liberties of this nation shall KNOW NO END.

A Medical Gentleman who has read the account of the dreadful effects of the oxide of copper on two servants of Lord Rossmore, produced by eating fruit stewed in a copper pan, observes, that in his practice he has frequently witnessed, when mineral poisons, technically called oxide, whether of copper or arsenic, are taken inwardly; that one table spoonful of powdered charcoal is a complete antidote, mixed with either honey, butter or treacle, taken immediately; within two hours administer either an emetic or cathartic; in this way the effect of the poison is prevented. By administering charcoal, a chemical decomposition takes place in the stomach, the oxide unites with the carbon, and the copper or arsenic regains its metallic properties; in which state it is perfectly harmless.

AN ACT.

To regulate the weighing and measuring of Grain, Salt and Coal.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Common Council of Alexandria, that all grain, salt, and coal hereafter mentioned, bought and sold in the town of Alexandria, shall be weighed and measured under the following regulations, to wit:—

Every bushel of wheat shall be computed to weigh sixty pounds; every bushel of Indian corn fifty five pounds; every bushel of rye fifty six pounds; every bushel of barley forty seven pounds; every bushel of oats thirty pounds to the bushel; Provided, that any person buying or selling a less quantity than one hundred bushels of wheat, Indian corn, rye, oats, barley or salt, or forty bushels of coal at any one time, may buy & sell the same without being weighed or measured by the sworn measurer, if so agreed upon between the buyer and seller.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, that there shall be, annually, appointed as many measurers as may be necessary, whose duty it shall be to measure, with their own hands, all wheat, Indian corn, rye, oats, barley, salt and coal, bought and sold within the limits of the corporation, (except as above provided, & except such salt as is measured in pursuance of the Laws of the United States, in the port of Alexandria. And every person applying for the office of measurer, on his appointment shall make oath or affirmation, before the mayor, that he will in all cases well and truly execute the office of measurer, between the buyer and seller, to the best of his skill and knowledge; and shall moreover give bond with two or more securities, to be approved of by the mayor, in the sum of five hundred dollars, payable to the common council of Alexandria, conditioned for the faithful performance of the said duties. And if any such measurer shall be detected in any fraud in the execution of his said office, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, that if any of the said measurers should fail to attend, upon application, being made to them to measure any of the aforesaid articles, within an hour after such application is made, unless he should be elsewhere engaged in the line of his duty as measurer, or can show cause to the satisfaction of the mayor why he could not give his regular attendance, he or they shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect the sum of five dollars.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for said measurers to charge and receive for their services the sum of 25 cents for every hundred bushels of salt and grain, and fifty cents for every hundred bushels of coal, by them so measured; and so in proportion for any less quantity, to be paid by the seller of the same.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of said measurers to provide at their own expense a sufficient number of barred half bushels for the measurement of all kind of grain, except oats and barley, and of half bushels without bars for oats, barley and salt, to be regulated by the standard of this corporation; and also to provide a sufficient number of measures without bars for coal, containing two and an half bushels, according to said standard, which shall be considered as two bushels. In the measurement of all grain, except oats and barley, the measurers shall use a strike with a square edge at least three fourths of an inch thick; and in the measurement of oats, barley and salt, they shall use a strike rounded on the edge.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, that if any person or persons shall sell and deliver any greater quantity of grain, salt or coal than is provided aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit and pay five dollars for every hundred bushels so sold and delivered, and in the same proportion for any greater or less quantity.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, that all penalties imposed by virtue of this act shall be recoverable by warrant before the mayor or any magistrate for the county of Alexandria, and shall be for the use of the corporation.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, that all former acts within the purview thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after the passing thereof.

Passed in council, this tenth day of December, 1816.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET.

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions, to restore & augment the appetite, to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness, sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or looseness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and wildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small man-worm; the Oxyuris, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of choler—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; living a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthmatic cough, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals; (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory edness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Colorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which sunder to accumulate, never fails to insure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of a frequent inoculation, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskillful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, sore throats, and accompanying Consumption, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth-Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered, which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Hahn's true & genuine Genuan Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale, pamphlets may be had gratis, describing corns, formed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
